The CARES Act establishes and funds the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF). Sections 18004(a)(1) and 18004(c) of the CARES Act, which address the HEERF, allow institutions of higher education to use up to 50 percent of the funds they receive to cover any costs associated with significant changes to the delivery of instruction due to the coronavirus so long as such costs do not include payment to contractors for the provision of pre-enrollment recruitment activities, including marketing and advertising; endowments; or capital outlays associated with facilities related to athletics, sectarian instruction, or religious worship (collectively referred to as “Recipient’s Institutional Costs”). Colorado Northwestern Community College received $198,998 from the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund (HEERF) as the institutional share. These funds were used in the following manner:

- $115,422.49 – offset meal plan refunds
- $ 75,015.30 – offset housing refunds
- $  5,100.00 – offset Oceanography trip refunds
- $  3,063.49 – Custodial/sanitizing supplies for onsite cleaning
- $  396.72 – Data plan/cellular charges to facilitate remote learning

$198,998.00 – Final Total Spent

Section 18004(a)(3) of the CARES Act established the Fund for the Improvement of Postsecondary Education (FIPSE). This section provides additional funds to institutions, which received less than $500,000 total from HEERF section 18004(a)(1) and 18004(a)(2). Institutions may use these funds to defray institutional expenses, under Section 18004(a)(2) and Section 18004(a)(3) may include lost revenue, reimbursement for expenses already incurred, technology costs associated with the transition to distance education, faculty and staff training, and payroll. Colorado Northwestern Community College received $102,003 from the FIPSE Formula Grant. These funds were used in the following manner:

- $ 30,726.64 – offset meal plan refunds
- $ 29,543.12 – offset housing refunds
- $  5,793.56 – Supplies to promote social distancing for in-person classes
- $12,716.33 – Custodial supplies and additional custodial staffing costs
- $  3,360.00 – Distance learning equipment
- $ 17,737.29 – Payroll Costs related to staff with impacted workload
- $  2,126.06 – Data plan/cellular charges to facilitate remote learning

$102,003.00 – Final Total Spent

In addition, the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021 (CRRSSAA), Public Law 116-260, was signed into law on Dec. 27, 2020, which established The Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund II (HEERF II). CRRSSAA authorized $81.88 billion in support for education, in addition to the $30.75 billion expeditiously provided last spring through the Coronavirus Aid, Recovery, and Economic Security (CARES) Act. Colorado Northwestern Community College received $699,357 from the CRRSAA allocation for institutional purposes. Institutions may use the funds to defray expenses associated with the COVID-19 pandemic that were incurred on March 13, 2020 or thereafter (including lost revenue, reimbursement for expenses already incurred, technology costs associated with a transition to distance education, faculty, and staff trainings, and payroll). These funds have been used in the following manner to date:

- $698,570.50 – Academic Sources Revenue Recovery
- $786.50 – Custodial Supplies
- $786.50 – Total Spent to Date
- $699,357.00 – FINAL Total Spent

In addition, On March 11, 2021, the President signed into law the ARP (Pub. L. 117-2). This new law makes available approximately $39.6 billion for institutions of higher education under HEERF, with funding appropriated through existing programs previously authorized under the CRRSAA (Pub. L. 116-260). Colorado Northwestern Community College received $785,636. Institutions may use the funds to defray expenses associated with the COVID-19 pandemic that were incurred on March 13, 2020 or thereafter (including lost revenue, reimbursement for expenses already incurred, technology costs associated with a transition to distance education, faculty, and staff trainings, and payroll). These funds have been used in the following manner to date:

- CNCC has not spent any ARP fund as 6/30/21

All transactions, related to the funds described above, are accounted for in isolated funds. This ensures appropriate expenditures through the utilization of internal controls. Funds are drawn down under a reimbursement model.
