

Adjunct Instructor Positions

Colorado Northwestern Community College

Adjunct Instructor Positions Available on the Craig and Rangely Campus'

Arts & Sciences Instructors

CNCC is actively seeking adjunct Arts and Science instructors in:

- Fine Arts / Studio Arts
- Geography
- Communication /Speech
- General Sciences

Other areas of the arts and sciences are also encouraged to apply.

Teaching assignment may include evenings.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Master's degree with at least 18 graduate level credit hours in the required discipline area

Preferred Qualifications:

- Master's degree in the discipline area
- Teaching experience in a secondary or post-secondary setting
- Experience with diverse populations

Career and Technical Education Instructors

CNCC is actively seeking adjunct CTE instructors in:

- Dental Hygiene-Rangely campus only

Other areas of CTE are also encouraged to apply. Teaching assignment may include evenings.

Minimum Qualifications:

Faculty teaching in CTE programs must meet the minimum standards required for the specific discipline, which may be defined by program accreditation standards.

Eligibility for a Colorado Post-Secondary CTE Credential within the discipline.

Additional standards may include:

- A Master's, Bachelor's, or Associate's degree in the discipline area.

For more information on CTE credentialing, contact CNCC's Credentialing Officer.

Preferred Qualifications:

- Master's degree in the discipline area
- Teaching experience in a secondary or post-secondary setting
- Experience with diverse populations

Please return to the Employment Opportunities page for instructions on how to apply.